The Cumberland Presbyterian invitation, "whosoever will," is a call of grace addressed to every soul. Hear the Gospel: Jesus Christ died and rose again so that you may be forgiven, reconciled to God, and receive eternal life. Do not remain divided between Christ and self. Turn from sin, surrender your will, and choose to follow Jesus as Lord and Savior. The invitation leads to the Cross, where mercy is offered, and a new life begins. John 3:1-8.

This is more than an invitation to consider; it is a decision that calls for a response. If God is drawing your heart, come to Christ today and take these essential steps toward the eternal life He promises.

First step: Repent. Confess your sin before God, turn away from it, and allow His Word to redirect your life.

Second step: Believe. Place your whole trust in the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ. Receive His forgiveness, His redeeming grace, and the new life only He can give.

Third step: Surrender. Surrender your plans, relationships, work, future, and daily choices to Jesus. Let Him rule every part of your life.

Fourth step: Confess your faith. Open your heart to God in prayer, declare your trust in Christ, and make your commitment known publicly. Do not postpone the decision that concerns eternity.

A Simple Prayer of Repentance and Surrender to Jesus

If these words express the sincere desire of your heart, pray:

"Lord Jesus, I confess that I am a sinner and cannot save myself. I believe You died for my sins and rose again. Forgive me, cleanse me, and make me new. I turn from my old life and surrender myself to You. Be my Lord and Savior, and lead me in Your truth from this day forward. I receive Your grace and the gift of eternal life.
In Jesus' name, Amen."

- Find a local Cumberland Presbyterian Church and continue your life with Jesus.